Not working at their Trades and Professions

New Hampshire.
- 23 in total, with trades such as Carpenters, Masons, Tailors, Milliners, Caulkers, Bootmakers, Bakers, and Dressmakers.

Vermont.
- 18 in total, with trades such as Carpenters, Masons, Tailors, Milliners, Bootmakers, Bakers, and Dressmakers.

Massachusetts.
- 187 in total, with trades such as Blacksmiths, House Carpenters, Ship Carpenters, Boot and Shoemakers, Dressmakers, Tailors, Milliners, Caulkers, Musicians, Farmers, Printers, Clergymen, Doctors, and Lawyers.

Rhode Island.
- No returns.

Connecticut.
- 97 in total, with trades such as Blacksmiths, House Carpenters, Ship Carpenters, Boot and Shoemakers, Dressmakers, Tailors, Milliners, Caulkers, Musicians, Farmers, Printers, Clergymen, Doctors, and Lawyers.

New York.
- 419 in total, with trades such as Boot and Shoemakers, House Carpenters, Boot and Shoemakers, Dressmakers, Tailors, Milliners, Caulkers, Musicians, Engineers, Watchmakers, Dressmakers, Tailoresses, Shirtmakers and Seamstresses, Preserves, Manufacturers, Clerks, and Artists.

Not working at their Trades:
- New Hampshire:
  - 0 returns.

- Vermont:
  - 5 in total, with trades such as Carpenters, Ropemakers, Blacksmiths, Musicians, Farmers.

- Massachusetts:
  - 46 in total, with trades such as Blacksmiths, House Carpenters, Boot and Shoemakers, Tailors, Milliners, Painters, Coopers, Printers, Milliners, Farmers, Clergymen, Doctors, and Physicians.

- Rhode Island:
  - 0 returns.

- Connecticut:
  - 46 in total, with trades such as Blacksmiths, Marine and Landscape Artist, Boot and Shoemakers, Tailors, Masons, Printers, Musicians, Carpenters, Blockmaker, and Clerks.

- New York:
  - 825 in total, with trades such as Boot and Shoemakers, House Carpenters, Boot and Shoemakers, Dressmakers, Tailors, Milliners, Caulkers, Musicians, Engineers, Watchmakers, Dressmakers, Tailoresses, Shirtmakers and Seamstresses, Preserves, Manufacturers, Clerks, and Artists.